July at the Peaks Island Branch Library

in the Community Building 766-5540

email peaks@portland.lib.me.us

Hours Open: Tues 2-8 Wed 10-4 Fri 10-2 Sat 8-12

A Peek Inside North Korea: Peaks Islander Steve Schuit will share his photos and observations from his recent visit to North Korea on Thursday, July 24, at 7 pm in the Community Room.

Stories and Craft on Tuesdays at 7: Mrs. Crowley-Rockwell will be back with her wonderful program for children 5-8, starting Tuesday, July 1 and going through August 12.

Summer Reading for Adults and Children is underway and very popular this year. There are weekly drawings for both children and adults for Longfellow Books gift certificates. When children have read 4 of their 8 books, the half-way mark, they can come in for a prize. Each program goes through July.

Middle School Book Club's next meeting: Tuesday, July 15, 5:45 pm. The Middle School Book Club is an enthusiastic group of kids who read, then meet for food and fun conversations about books. So if you are in middle school, or entering in the fall, reading between now and Tuesday July 15th join us. It is open to all middle schoolers, whether you're here just for the summer or year round.

First Tuesdays Book Discussion: meets at 7 pm at the TEIA club house for July and August:
July 1 – The Color of Water: A Black Man's Tribute to His White Mother by James McBride;
August 5 – The Water Is Wide: a Memoir by Pat Conroy. EVERYONE is welcome to attend.

Peaks Island Music Association

The Wednesday night Summer Concert Series is soon upon us! Please join us in July for two wonderful concerts. On July 9 you can get your fix of Smooth Jazz, with islanders Tom & Dexter Morse and Friends. Then, on July 23, join us for the popular Annual Island Musicians Concert, a diverse program including blues, classical, Broadway and more. You'll hear banjo, piano, clarinet, vocalists, and who knows what else! All PIMA Wednesday night concerts are at 8:00 pm at the Fifth Maine, with a suggested donation of $5.

Coming up in August there are three more concerts. On August 2 we are excited to welcome back the fabulous Maryland State Boychoir with its 60+ voices. This is a free 7:30 pm concert co-sponsored by Brackett United Methodist Church, and a free-will offering will be collected to help support the tour. We'll need HELP from the community to house and feed these talented young men – so please watch for specific notifications and requests.

On August 6 we will bring you the amazing 99-year-old concert pianist Frank Glazer, recently featured on NPR and WCSH Channel 6. Mr. Glazer was born in Wisconsin in 1915, the sixth child of Benjamin and Clara Glazer, Jewish immigrants from Lithuania. He is currently Artist-in-Residence at Bates College, and was formerly Professor of Piano at Eastman School of Music. He has concertized throughout the world and played with leading orchestras, including the New York Philharmonic and the Boston Symphony Orchestra. He regularly performs with the Bates College Orchestra and guest artists. Mr. Glazer has performed as a recording artist under the Vox label. (The concert originally scheduled for this date, Principals of Roanoke Opera, had a change in schedule due to a significant award, and has rescheduled with us for the summer of 2015.) The Peaks Island Chorale, our 25-voice community chorus, will perform its summer concert featuring international folk music on August 20.

The deadline for the 2014 Barbara Goelman Music Scholarship is August 1. Any student seriously studying music is invited to apply. Simply send a letter of application to: Peaks Island Music Association, 41 Luther Street.

Friends of the Peaks Island Library July Activities

Book Sale: Please hold your books and other items for the fabulous Friends of the Peaks Island Library Book Sale. The sale will be held on Saturday, July 19 from 8:00-2:00 in the Community Room. Books will be accepted on Friday, July 18. There will be signup sheets for those who can help on either day. ALSO, if you'd be willing to work with Susan Carlson, this year's chairman, and then chair the sale with someone else next year, the Friends would like to hear from you! It's a fun job, you'll meet lots of nice people, and the work is mostly concentrated on those two days: setting up and the sale itself.

Memberships in the Friends run from July to July, so don't forget to sign up either at the Book Sale or at the library.

A Peek Inside North Korea: Peaks Island resident Steve Schuit will share photos and observations from his recent visit to North Korea on Thursday, July 24, at 7 pm in the Community Room. Steve has had a strong bond with the Korean peninsula since 1973, when he served there as a Peace Corps Volunteer. He is currently a professor of English at Yeungnam University in South Korea.

Fifth Maine Museum

The Fifth Maine Regiment Museum has many great events happening this month in the memorial hall.

For Wednesday night educational programs, on July 16, "The Wabanaki People of Colonial Maine" with Penobscot re-enactor and lecturer Ken Hamilton; and on July 30, "The Underground Railroad in Maine." Both events have a suggested donation of $5 at the door. For delicious meals, we have an old fashioned Beans & Bingo night on July 19 at 5:30 pm, then our famous Pancake Breakfast on Sunday morning the 27. And the much anticipated bi-annual House Tour on Saturday July 26 from 1:00 – 4:00 pm.

One more event in the works: Sunday July 27 is the official "mustering out" day for the Fifth Maine Regiment, when they returned to Portland and their civilian lives. The museum will be holding a "Homecoming Party for the Troops" in the afternoon, with local military representation. Homecomings are always powerful, and here's our opportunity to join in. Stay tuned for details, and come join us!

Tuesday night, July 8 brings Storytelling by the Sea to 45 Seashore Ave. at 7:30 pm, featuring three of Maine's premier story tellers. The Peaks Island Lecture Series holds its next edition on Thursday, July 17 at 6:30. Donations accepted for both of these events.

Concerts in the hall this month. July 3 and July 31 will bring a pair of classical concerts by Peter Sulski on violin and Ariana Falk on cello. The acclaimed Duo Concertante will offer the music of Bach, Ravel, Bartok, and Kodaly. Both at 7:00 pm; tickets $12/adults, under 17 free. The Peaks Island Music Association brings two concerts this month: July 9 & 23, both Wednesdays at 8:00 pm. Please refer to their article in this Star for details on these concerts. On Saturday the 26 at 8:00 come hear local chanteuse Nancy Hoffman in, "The Six Voices of Nancy 3."

Please refer to our website for more details and a full schedule of events: www.fifthmainemuseum.org, or FMI: email events@fifthmainemuseum.org or call 766-3330. July hours of operation: 10:00 am – 4:00 pm every day.

DEADLINE FOR NEXT MONTH'S STAR: Friday, July 25, by 6 pm. Bring articles copy-ready to the library. On a separate sheet, please list August items for the front page calendar. You may put them in the Book Return or under the door when the library is closed.

PEAKS ISLAND TAX AND ENERGY ASSISTANCE NEIGHBORS HELPING NEIGHBORS

PITEA is very excited to announce that Kimberley's Travels will be on the Island July 4,5, and 6 to sell her batik clothing and jewelry. Kimberley grew up on Peaks and traveled the world before settling in Bali where she creates her beautiful clothing and jewelry. Kimberley has been selling her batik clothing and jewelry on the island for many years and she always donates a portion of her profits to a non-profit on the Island. This year she is helping PITEA for energy and tax assistance.

Please visit her website, www.kimberleystravels.com to read about Kimberley.

PITEA will be holding our first "Chowder and Lobster Roll Dinner on Thursday, July 17th from 5-7 p.m. at Jones Landing. We will announce the price just as soon as we know the price for lobsters. Watch for our emails on the internet and Next Door Peaks Island. We will be asking folks to make reservations as well. The menu will include chowder, lobster rolls, coleslaw, desserts and iced tea and lemonade. We will have chicken salad rolls for those who do not eat fish.

Please call 766-0067 from July 1st-15th to make your reservation.

All of the money we raise is used for energy assistance or for tax assistance. All of the food we serve at our dinners is donated by our members.

Peaks Island Health Center
87 Central Ave.

Hours: Monday, Wednesday, Friday: 8:30 AM to 3:00 PM

Kitty Gilbert, Family Nurse Practitioner, provides care for all ages.
Please call either 766-2929 or 874-2466 for an appointment.

 Reminders, especially for returning summer residents:

1. If you need blood work done, please call the Health Center for an appointment and bring (or have faxed) a written order from your primary care physician. The Health Center fax # is: 207-766-5073
2. The Health Center will see patients for urgent care who have primary care physicians in other practices. However, before the situation arises, you should discuss this scenario with your insurance company. A form and further information are available at the Health Center.

 June 28 through July 4: Yes, it is time for the ever-popular Clamshell Raffle and Race once again! On Saturday and Sunday, June 28-29, and on Wednesday and Thursday, July 2-3, we will be selling raffle tickets for some fabulous prizes in front of Hannigan's Market. On Friday, raffle tickets will be sold at Greenwood Garden, beginning at nine, until just before the race. The Clamshell Race, a two-person relay, open to walkers and runners of all ages, will begin on Friday, July 4, at 10:00 AM. Registration for the teams of two will begin at 9:00 AM. that day.
Please plan to support our Peaks Island Health Center by buying raffle tickets, and by participating in the fun-filled and community-friendly Clamshell Race.

SENIOR LUNCHEON NEWS

The Senior Luncheon will be held on Monday, July 14th. The Peaks Island Ukes will be at the Fay Garman House to entertain us. Please invite your senior friends and neighbors to come at noon and enjoy the music and lunch. Bring a dish to share and join in the fun!

If you haven't paid your annual dues of $5.00 at the June luncheon, you can pay them on the 14th. All Seniors are welcome!

PEAKS ISLAND COUNCIL (PIC)

Scheduled PIC meetings are held the 4th Wednesday of each month at the Community Center. Next scheduled meeting is TBD. For more information please contact any of the council members: Cheryl Miner Chair, Marjorie Phyfe Co Chair, Chris Alves, Mary Anne Mitchel, Jean Martens, Lisa Penalver or Tim Wyant.

Need Based Ferry Tickets

Tickets available through the Baptist Church, Brackett Church, Food Pantry, Peaks Island Health Center, St. Christopher's Church and the Peaks Island Senior Center.

Bike Tickets for Island Residents

Spring is here! Bike tickets became available at the Peaks Island Library for island residents at no cost. During regular library hours, island residents may request tickets for up to four (4) people. Only one set of tickets will be given out per day. We ask that individuals request them no more than once a month to allow for more people to use them.

This program is funded through the Peaks Island Council budget as part of the budget of the City of Portland. This program is intended to give island residents recreational access to the bike trails of greater Portland. Enjoy!

PEAKS ENVIRONMENTAL TEAM

The Peaks Environmental Action Team (PEAT) invites you to a presentation by marine science professor and Peaks resident, Mark Green, on the Health of the Gulf of Maine. His presentation will be held at the Community Center at 7 pm on Monday, July 14th. You can read more about Mark here: <http://bit.ly/1g2tVy2>

PEAT is also planning a presentation on pesticides, tentatively on August 11th at 7 pm. We hope you will save both dates and join us!

In the meantime, please avoid the use of pesticides whenever possible in order to support our island population of pollinators. For more information on the relationship between pesticide use and the collapse of bee populations both locally and in many countries, read this article from the Portland Press herald: <http://bit.ly/1ivvFG5>

Peaks Island Community Emergency Response Team (CERT)

Our Portland Fire Department and CERT urge all islanders to post house numbers on their homes to help save lives in an emergency.

We still need more volunteers!

For more information, call Al Bleau at 766-0007 or 781-962-2662.
